Dry Dock Brewing Company Expands Distribution to Durango With Ska Brewing Company

AURORA, CO— Dry Dock Brewing Company has partnered with Ska Brewing Company to expand its distribution to seven counties in the Southwest corner of the state. Dry Dock's award-winning beers are now available in Durango, Colorado.

Dry Dock's Home Fleet of beers, which includes the company's flagship Apricot Blonde as well as Hop Abomination IPA, Wheat Beer, Vanilla Porter, Amber Ale, and Sour Apricot, are now available in canned 6-packs at Durango liquor stores. Beer lovers can also find 12-pack variety Booty Boxes, 12-packs of Apricot Blonde, and bombers of the brewery's seasonal and specialty beers.

"We're proud to partner with such a craft-savvy distributor," says Dry Dock Brewing Company's Director of Sales & Marketing George Allen. "We're excited to offer our Colorado-only brand to even more Coloradoans."

"We have been friends with the folks at Dry Dock for a long time," adds Dave Thibodeau, Co-Founder and President of Ska Brewing. "They make some killer beers! We are excited to add them to our distribution portfolio and share their award-winning beers with Southwest Colorado."

Dry Dock beers are distributed throughout the rest of Colorado through Western Distributing.
